Citizens' Guides to Land Use and Urban Design

Ethan Ellestad, Foundation for Louisiana

- These Citizens' Guides were compiled by the Foundation for Louisiana.
- They explain what a land-use map is (a map that shows what can go where) and how to make your neighborhood look how you want it to look.
- The Urban Design guide might help you if you're interested in the Wheatley building.

Txt4Health

Cleveland Spears, Spears Consulting (for Louisiana Public Health Institute)

- Text the word "health" to 300400 and then you answer some questions and it will tell you if you're at risk for diabetes. There is no charge to enroll; your standard text messaging rates will apply.
- Won't send more than 3-4 text messages a week and that's only if you are in the high-risk category
- Only for New Orleans residents so you have to put in your New Orleans zipcode.

- Everyone had the opportunity to enroll in Txt4Health via their cell phones.

TUCHC

Dana Keren, TUCHC

- We have officially moved to our new location at Orleans and Broad from N. Rampart Street
- Question: Can I switch from another doctor?
Answer: Yes! You just have to call ahead of time to switch over your medical records.
- TUCHC also hosts a walking group that meets on Saturday mornings at City Park and computer literacy classes at Orleans and Broad.

Sojourner Truth Neighborhood Center Updates

Andreanecia Morris, Providence Community Housing

- Sojourner Truth is going to be hosting a kids' summer camp. We will be holding an info session next week. There will be 30 slots available on a first come, first served basis. The camp will last 8 weeks, 9 am-3 pm, Monday through Friday. There will be a small fee associated with it(exact amount to be determined). It will include field trips and daily activities. It will be open to children ages 6-12.
- Question: Will there be job opportunities for older youth?
Answer: The camp provider is bringing their own staff; counselors will be college students. However, they will have Job 1 assistants, and youth 14-18 can apply for these positions.
- Question: What about children ages 13-15?
Answer: We don't have currently have a camp available for them but children 14 and older they can apply for a Job 1 position.

D'Ana Smith, STNC

- Last restorative circle is next Wednesday at 7 pm. Find out about plans going forward after summer break.
- The last Girl Scout meeting is May 12, this Saturday.
- Our senior program is Monday-Wednesday from 11-2.
- We are still offering our lifestyle classes.
- One of our residents, 23 months old, has a very rare cancer. He is going to Texas for surgery and they need blood. Please give blood if you can.

Wealth Development

Claudette Austin, STNC

- We have Moneywi$e financial literacy classes on Wednesdays, 11-1 pm.
- There are info session on the first and third Tuesday of the month.
- On the second and fourth Thursday of each month, 2-4 pm, there is a resume and online job seeking course.

- On the fourth Thursday of every month, there is a jobseekers' round table, where we discuss the challenges to finding employment as well as soft-skills training and what to say on interviews.
- Our earned benefits program makes sure you're receiving every state and federal benefit you're entitled too. We can help you enroll in a prescription assistance program to help reduce your co-pays, and we can add your earned income credit to your regular paycheck (rather than receiving one lump sum with your tax return).
- Appointments preferred but you can walk in too, any day of the week.

Resident of the month

Claudette Austin, STNC

- Congratulations to Ms. L. Preston. This young lady is very active in the community. Volunteers for many activities and completed Moneywi$e classes.
